LOVE THY ENEMY

One of the most challenging teachings of Jesus to his disciples was 'to love their enemies'. It got me thinking: do I have any enemies? I'm not personally at war with anyone, and, while there may be many who disagree with my opinions, attitudes, perspective and sometimes, even my actions, these people have been courteous enough not to let me know who they are, (please God, it will stay that way).

Still they are not what I would call an 'enemy'. But what about the people who have hurt or disappointed me, the ones I strongly disagree with and have dismissed from my circle of care because of our differences? Have I made them my soft version of 'an enemy'? Of course, if I was serious about not wanting to have people I disagree with, or dismiss as lacking in any moral fibre or conscience, then I need only stop reading the newspaper or stop listening to evening news. That would certainly lower my level of intolerance and stop me forming opinions about individuals I have never met, and may never get a chance to discover what I'm hearing from a journalist is actually the truth. But unfortunately, I'm addicted to news reports and, like most people, I'm drawn in by sensationalism and negative reports rather than good news stories. (What's that about?)

Lorenzo Rosebaugh, an Oblate priest shot to death in Guatemala ten years ago, used to share some advice once given to him. Lorenzo, when contemplating an act of civil disobedience to protest the Vietnam War, was told: "If you can't do this without becoming bitter, then don't do it! Do it only if you can do it with a mellow heart! Do it only if you can be sure you won't end up hating those who arrest you!"

Now while I have no intention of committing any acts of civil disobedience, nor getting arrested, nevertheless the message of loving those who may hurt or hate you still confronts those of us who live in a world where the challenges to our sense of justice are more subtle. That's hard to do; but, in the end, it's the ultimate challenge, namely, to not hate those who oppose us, to continue to have gracious and forgiving hearts in the face of misunderstanding, bitter opposition, jealousy, anger, hatred, positive mistreatment, and even the threat of death. And to be a disciple of Jesus means that, at some point, we will be hated. We will make enemies. It happened to Jesus and he assured us that it will happen to us.

But Jesus also left us the ultimate example of how we need to respond to our enemies. When scripture tells us that Jesus saved the people from their sins, it doesn't just mean that in offering his death to his father as a sacrifice in one eternal act he took away our sins. It also points to his way of living and how, as he demonstrated, forgiving and loving one's enemies take away sin, by absorbing it. Jesus' great act of love, as Kierkegaard once said, is meant to be imitated not just admired.

But how do we do this? Part two coming next week....

Enjoy your week
Fr Peter

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,

you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the holy one,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the most high, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,

APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God,
the Father almighty,

and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day, he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting, Amen.

FIRST READING

Jeremiah 17:5-8

A curse on those who trust in humanity; a blessing on those who trust in the Lord.

The Lord says this:

'A curse on the man who puts his trust in man,
who relies on things of flesh,
whose heart turns from the Lord.

He is like dry scrub in the wastelands:
if good comes, he has no eyes for it,
he settles in the parched places of the wilderness,
a salt land, uninhabited.

'A blessing on the man who puts his trust in the Lord,
with the Lord for his hope.

He is like a tree by the waterside
that thrusts its roots to the stream:
when the heat comes it feels no alarm,
its foliage stays green;
it has no worries in a year of drought,
and never ceases to bear fruit.'

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20

If Christ is not raised from the dead, your faith is in vain.

If Christ raised from the dead is what has been preached,
how can some of you be saying that there is no resurrection of the dead? For if the dead are not raised, Christ has not been raised, and if Christ has not been raised, you are still in your sins. And what is more serious, all who have died in Christ have perished. If our hope in Christ has been for this life only, we are the most unfortunate of all people.
But Christ has in fact been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of all who have fallen asleep.

GOSPEL

Luke 6:17, 20-26

Happy are the poor. Woe to the rich!

Jesus came down with the Twelve and stopped at a piece of level ground where there was a large gathering of his disciples with a great crowd of people from all parts of Judaea and from Jerusalem and from the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon who had come to hear him and to be cured of their diseases.

Then fixing his eyes on his disciples he said:

'How happy are you who are poor;
yours is the kingdom of God.

Happy you who are hungry now: you shall be satisfied.

Happy you who weep now: you shall laugh.

'Happy are you when people hate you, drive you out, abuse you, denounce your name as criminal, on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice when that day comes and dance for joy, for then your reward will be great in heaven. This was the way their ancestors treated the prophets.

'But alas for you who are rich: you are having your consolation now.

Alas for you who have your fill now: you shall go hungry.

Alas for you who laugh now: you shall mourn and weep.

'Alas for you when the world speaks well of you! This was the way their ancestors treated the false prophets.'

Every life is an amazing story
