Dear friends,

Last week we began a seven-week series of homilies that engage with Archbishop Mark's apostolic priorities for the Archdiocese. Today we move to the second priority, "reshaping parish communities."

Archbishop Mark writes:

"Our current structures are based upon the facts of an earlier time and our current mode of provision is unsustainable. In the cities at least we have too many parishes and too many churches. Urban parishes were established on the assumption that people had to be able to walk to church and at a time when the numbers attending Mass were much larger. Many of our parishes are pressed financially and cannot provide the range of services which a missionary Church requires. Therefore, we need – sensibly and over time – to move towards larger configurations of a community of communities where the concentration of personnel and the sharing of resources would allow a greater range of services for the sake of the Gospel."

Luke's account of the disciples on the road to Emmaus can help us understand how God might speak to us in ways we did not anticipate. Jesus can be walking with us and speaking to us and yet we fail to recognise him because he has not come in the way we expected. How is Jesus speaking to us today? The encounter with Jesus on the road to Emmaus enabled a paradigm shift for how the disciples understood the scriptures. When they reflected on their experience with Jesus on the Emmaus Road, they said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?" Today as we move into the Liturgy of the Eucharist, let us ask Jesus to help us recognise his presence with us, enable us to imagine a reshaping of parish communities that enhances their reflection of the risen Christ, and let us ask Jesus to make our hearts burn within us.

ANZAC DAY MASS - will be celebrated at St Luke's Church, 47 Taylor St, Woolloongabba at 9.00am on Tuesday morning, and at the Cathedral of St Stephen at 8.00am, followed by refreshments in the Hanly Room. All are welcome to attend.

Lest we Forget

Stella Maris is a worldwide Catholic ministry to the seafaring community, supported by Centacare in Brisbane. With borders reopening after Covid 19 restrictions there is a growing need to build a team of volunteers to assist with transporting seafarers from ship to shore at the Port of Brisbane and Northside berths. All you need is a C class drivers' licence to drive the Stella Maris vehicle, a welcoming heart and a few hours spare on one or two days a week. Volunteering in the Archdiocese requires a Blue Card and Criminal History Check and meeting safeguarding requirements. For more information, please contact Judy Norris 3324 3193.
