We pray for our recently departed, especially Gerald Lynch (brother of Patricia Pryor), may they rest in peace.

For those whose anniversaries are at this time, we remember them.

Dear Parishioners and friends of St Joseph's and St Benedict's,

It should never escape our attention that in this parish we are surrounded by history. To think that our Parish school was started by St Mary MacKillop who actually taught our first generation of children is a wonderful part of the history. Indeed, we are fortunate to stand on the shoulders of giants like St Mary and all those who founded the Parish.

The ongoing ministry of both our churches has occupied my mind since I became Parish Priest back in 2017. I am the first to admit that this arrangement is far from ideal – i.e. with me being away on many Sundays of the year. We have been blessed by the ministry of the various priests who minister at the Cathedral and many recognise the variety of preaching that comes through the priests that preside at the Eucharist.

Added to this, the ongoing maintenance of both historic churches continues to provide concern for us all. The recent external painting of St Joseph's was much needed and engineering works were carried out to strengthen the bell tower. Preparations continue for a similar painting at St Benedict's after the repair of damaged and rotten timbers. Ongoing attention to drainage issues and new concreting of cracked driveways has been carried out recently.

Now, I would like to suggest we start to tackle several internal issues. In both churches the fans need to be replaced and possible upgrading of the lighting. Internal painting is also needed. Of significance to St Joseph's is a desired rearranging of the sanctuary to reposition the altar to the centre of the church. There are a number of considerations for this, and I would like to meet with the community after Mass on Sunday 4 December to further discuss.

Over the next couple of weeks, I will use this newsletter to write about the significance of the furnishings and layout of our sacred liturgical space according to the reforms of Vatican II. How fortunate we are to have the marvellous original paintings by James Wieneke in the apse and the stations of the Cross. These add so much to the architecture of St Joseph's.

I look forward to your support as we continue to provide not only for our own needs but also for the future, as we have benefited so much from our past parishioners.

THE BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE is used to remember our loved ones who have played such a significant part in our own life story. You will find Mass Intention envelopes at the entrance of both churches this month, and the Book of Remembrance has been placed on the Sanctuary. You are invited to take a few moments to remember, pray and record the names of your deceased loved ones on the envelope provided. The office will then ensure all names from these envelopes are recorded in the Book. During November we will use our book of remembrance as the focus of our prayers.
