Dear friends,

"Unprecedented" is the word of the moment. It's been the word of the past week, the word of the past few months, and the word of the last couple of year. It is unprecedented just how often the word "unprecedented" has been invoked in recent times by all and sundry. This is because the word captures our sense of life being interrupted and disturbed by the collusion of the unexpected with our own presumed certainties and stabilities. The scale of these "disturbances" has shaken us in ways that we are barely aware of. And this is how we come to Lent this year: As a people shaped and shaken by the scale of disruption to our daily living.

The word "Lent" for this season of penitence and preparation before Easter is unique to English. In Italian, it is called, "Quaresima" (derived from the Latin word for "fortieth"), and in French, Lent is known as "Carême" which means "to fast". In English, Lent is known by its seasonal attributes; in the north hemisphere it is now coming into Spring and the word for Spring in Middle English is "Lent". It implies "lengthening" or "stretching" as the daylight hours grow longer and the light of day lengthens as the northern hemisphere tilts towards the summer solstice. While in our part of the world we are heading into the cooler and darker days of Autumn, it is also true that our resilience has been tested and stretched by the constant upheavals and uncertainties of the last couple of years. We need a little brightness amid the encircling doom.

Plagues, fires, and now floods and the drums of war have pushed and pulled us in all directions. We come to this Lent stretched, physically, emotionally and spiritually by the instability of our times.

We are reminded in the very meaning of the word that Lent is about the promise of light. Our greatest fear of being stretched is that we might break but the hope of being stretched is that we will fortified and stand tall. Strengthen rather than defeated, we can grow taller in order to see further, over the horizon, out where the glow of the dawn awaits. This dawn is the light of Easter, stretching out towards us; for even in Autumn we trust in the promise of Spring (Lent). Fr. Anthony commenced last Wednesday at 7.00pm in St Benedict’s Church and will continue weekly until 6 April. The group supports each individual’s faith journey through Lent and encourages participants to engage in informal reflective conversations about the meaning of Lent and the journey to Easter. Please consider coming along, even if it is for only one or two weeks. It’s very informal and everyone is welcome.

THE PARISH LENTEN DISCUSSION GROUP (THE SPIRIT AND THE CROSS)

Anatercia 12, was struggling to cope with adult responsibilities after her father died. Then she participated in Caritas Australia-supported training and gained access to psychosocial supports.

Now, Anatercia can easily access clean drinking water, community members are able to grow healthy crops all year round, and there is enough nutritious food to eat. Anatercia feels better supported by her community, has more time to study and do her homework, and hopes to fulfil her dream of becoming a nurse.

Please donate to Project Compassion 2022 to help young people succeed in the future and bring stability to vulnerable youth like Anatercia.

Together, we can help vulnerable communities face their challenges today and build a better tomorrow For All Future Generations.

You can donate through Project Compassion donation boxes and envelopes available from the piety stall, or by visiting lent.caritas.org.au, or by calling 1800 024 413.
